Library Program For College Students

Duxbury college students and college-bound high school graduates are invited to participate in a creative evening scheduled for late August in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Library. Auditions will be held at the Library Saturday, Aug. 14, during regular hours and Tuesday evening, Aug. 17, from 7-9.

A program will feature music, dance, poetry readings, drama, and readings from original work by students. A similar program was presented earlier in connection with the gallery's Under-21 Show, and since then great interest has been shown in presenting the creativity of college students in the same manner.

The show will be under the direction of Library Director Janice Neubauer and Lee Milligan of Duxbury, a student at Northeastern University.

READING CLUB HIKE

The summer reading program, which features an imaginary walk around Duxbury this year, will culminate in an actual walk over one of Duxbury's nature trails.

The Pathfinders Club will meet at 10 a.m. on Aug. 20 at the Library to be transported to the point where their hike will start. Duxbury Friends of Conservation will conduct hikes.

Club members should bring written permission from their parents and a sandwich in a bag. Drinks and dessert will be provided.
